AGREEMENT made this 21st day of April, 1983 between DOUBLEDAY & COMPANY, INC., of Garden City, N.Y., hereinafter called "Publisher," and of The Point Foundation

c/o John Brockman Associates, Inc.
2307 Broadway
New York, New York 10024

hereinafter called "Author," being the ~~Author and~~ Proprietor of a work at present entitled

THE WHOLE EARTH SOFTWARE CATALOG

RIGHTS GRANTED

1. (a) Author grants to Publisher for the full term of copyright available in each country included within the territory covered by this Agreement, including renewals and extensions, under any copyright laws now or hereafter in force the sole and exclusive right to print, publish, copy, and vend the work and the other rights hereinafter referred to on the terms set forth, in the English language throughout the

TERRITORY

United States of America, Canada and the Philippine Islands; territory other than the U.S.A., the Philippine Islands and the British Commonwealth (exclusive of Canada) being an open market for copies produced in the English language.

(b) Author hereby requests and authorizes Publisher to engage Doubleday Canada Limited to publish the work in Canada, with the same force and effect as if Author had himself engaged Doubleday Canada Limited so to publish.

(c) During the term of this Agreement Author will not exercise or dispose of any reserved rights, nor cause to be published any version of the work or any similar version of the work in such a way as to affect adversely the value of any of the rights granted to Publisher hereunder, except for material to be published in the Whole Earth Software Review (magazine).

PUBLICATION

2. Publisher shall publish ~~a trade paperback edition of~~ the work at its own expense, in the style and manner and at the price now estimated to be $15.00, which it shall deem best suited to its sale and under such original imprint as it deems advisable.

ANNUAL PAYMENT LIMITATION

~~4. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, Publisher shall in no event pay to Author out of the sums accruing to Author more than ($) during any one calendar year. In the event the sums to Author's credit exceed such annual maximum payment, such excess shall be retained by Publisher in its general funds and shall be paid by it to Author in successive calendar years provided each yearly payment shall not exceed the maximum herein stated.~~

TRADE ROYALTY IN THE UNITED STATES

5. Publisher shall pay to Author:

★ (a) On all copies, less returns, of the regular trade edition sold by Publisher in the United States of America (except as hereinafter set forth), the following royalties based on the retail price:

CANADIAN ROYALTY

(b) On all copies of the regular trade edition of the work sold in the Dominion of Canada, an amount equal to five per cent (5%) of the United States of America retail price.

OTHER EXPORT MARKETS

(c) On all copies of the regular trade edition of the work sold by Publisher to other export markets, an amount equal to eight per cent (8%) of the United States of America retail price.

MAIL ORDER

(d) On all copies of the work sold by Publisher (less returns) through an offer made by its Mail Order Department, on a non-exclusive basis, as distinct from sales made to bookstores or jobbers, ~~five per cent (5%)~~ ten per cent (10%) of the ~~Mail Order retail price,~~ net proceeds, exclusive of shipping and handling charges. ★

SPECIAL SALES

(e) On all copies of the regular trade edition of the work sold through Publisher's Special Sales Department, as distinct from sales made to bookstores or jobbers, five per cent (5%) of the retail price, except as hereinafter provided.

(f) On all copies of the work acquired from Publisher's affiliates or subsidiaries and sold through Publisher's Special Sales Department, Publisher shall pay to Author five per cent (5%) of the proceeds to Publisher of such sales, exclusive of shipping and handling charges.

(g) In the event Publisher's Special Sales Department shall license others to produce the work or any part thereof, Publisher shall pay to Author fifty per cent (50%) of the license fees and/or plate rentals received by Publisher for such license.

~~(h) In the event Publisher's Special Sales Department shall publish a special subscription edition of the work, Publisher shall pay to Author five per cent (5%) of the proceeds to Publisher of the sale of copies of such special edition, exclusive of shipping and handling charges.~~

(i) On sales for premium use of copies of the work, excerpts therefrom, or special editions thereof, Publisher shall pay to Author five per cent (5%) of the proceeds to Publisher of such sales, exclusive of shipping and handling charges. On sales of copies of the work for premium use acquired from Publisher's affiliates or subsidiaries, Publisher shall pay to Author five per cent (5%) of the proceeds to Publisher of such sales, exclusive of shipping and handling charges.

PUBLISHING RIGHTS OUTSIDE OF UNITED STATES AND TRANSLATIONS

~~6. Author grants to Publisher the sole and exclusive right to sell English language and translation rights licensed~~ to the work in book or serial form (in full-length, condensed, or ~~abridged versions)~~ for publication in countries other than the United States, for ~~publication in the territory~~ specified in Paragraph 1(a). Publisher shall pay to Author ~~seventy-five per cent (75%) of the net proceeds of such sale.~~

BOOK CLUBS

7. Author grants to Publisher the sole and exclusive right to license the right to print, publish, and sell an edition of the work to a book club, including any book club owned or operated by a subsidiary or affiliate of Publisher, or to any organization which operates on the basis of plate rental or purchase of book club rights (in full-length, condensed, or abridged versions). Publisher shall pay to Author fifty per cent (50%) of the net proceeds of such licenses received by Publisher.

REPRINT

~~8. Author grants to Publisher the sole and exclusive right to sell to other publishers, including any subsidiary~~ or affiliate or division of Publisher, the right to bring out a reprint edition of the work (in full-length, condensed, or abridged versions), which sale shall provide that such reprints shall not appear on the market within one year after the publication date of trade publication. Publisher shall pay to Author fifty per cent (50%) of the proceeds of such sales, except that in the case of such a sale to Publisher's reprint division, Publisher shall pay to Author one-half the amount which the reprint division shall credit to Publisher. In the event that a reprint edition of the work is published and sold by any subsidiary or affiliate or a division of Publisher, the license to publish the work will, to the extent possible, be on terms similar to the terms of current agreements for similar licenses between Publisher and an unrelated reprint publisher.

ONE-PART MAGAZINE PUBLICATION

X 9. (a) Author may not sell the work for publication in full-length, condensed, or abridged versions in one part before book publication without the prior written consent of Publisher.

~~(b) Author hereby grants to Publisher the sole and exclusive right to sell, in the territory specified in Para~~graph 1, the work for publication in newspapers or periodicals in full-length, condensed, or abridged versions in one part before book publication. Publisher shall pay to Author seventy-five per cent (75%) of the net proceeds of such sales.

FIRST SERIAL

10. Author grants to Publisher the sole and exclusive right to sell, in the territory specified in Paragraph 1, the work or parts of it for publication in serial form in newspapers or periodicals and excerpts from the work for publication in newspapers or periodicals before publication in book form. Publisher shall pay to Author ninety per cent (90%) of the net proceeds of such sales (except on sales for serial publication in countries other than the United States under Paragraph 6 hereof).

SECOND SERIAL

* 11. (a) Author grants to Publisher the sole and exclusive right to sell, in the territory specified in Paragraph 1, the work or parts of it for publication in serial form in newspapers or periodicals and excerpts from the work for publication in newspapers or periodicals after publication in book form (provided such rights have not been retained by the purchaser of the first serial rights). Publisher shall pay to Author fifty per cent (50%) of the net proceeds of such sales (except on sales for serial publication in countries other than the United States under Paragraph 6 hereof).

* (b) In making sales pursuant to Paragraphs ~~9(b), 10, and~~ 11(a), Publisher may deal directly with newspapers or periodicals or with those dealers in such literary rights commonly known as syndicates.

PERMISSIONS: EXTRACTS ANTHOLOGIES ABRIDGED VERSIONS

* 12. (a) Author grants to Publisher, in the territory specified in Paragraph 1 hereof, after publication of the work in book form, the right (1) to license for publication an adaptation of all or part of the work, and (2) to sell the work or extracts therefrom for use in periodicals or books (provided such rights have not been retained by the purchasers of the first serial rights), but not in its entirety in book form except as provided in Paragraphs ~~6~~, 7, and 8. Publisher shall pay to Author fifty per cent (50%) of the proceeds of such sales (except on sales in countries other than the United States under Paragraph 6 hereof).

(b) No payment shall be made to Author by Publisher for permission gratuitously given by Publisher, before or after publication of the work in book form, to publish extracts from the work to benefit the sale thereof.

MOTION PICTURES DRAMATIZATION PUBLIC READINGS

13. ~~Author grants Publisher the sole and exclusive right to sell motion picture rights, dramatic rights with or~~ without music, public reading and other non-dramatic performing rights throughout the world in and to and in connection with the said work. Publisher shall pay to Author ninety per cent (90%) of the proceeds of such sales, except ~~sound recording (see Paragraph 16)~~. Any sales of motion picture rights to the work may grant to the purchaser the right to publish, for advertising and exploitation, excerpts, summaries, and synopses of the work or dramatizations or motion pictures thereof, but no such excerpts, summaries or synopses shall exceed 7500 words in length, nor shall they appear as having been written by Author, nor shall they be offered to any person, firm, or corporation for a monetary consideration.

RADIO TELEVISION

~~14. Author grants to Publisher the sole and exclusive right to sell radio and/or television rights, throughout the~~ world, in and to and in connection with said work. Publisher shall pay to Author ninety per cent (90%) of the proceeds of such sales.

COMMERCIAL RIGHTS

15. Author grants to Publisher the sole and exclusive right to sell, and to license others to sell, subject to the approval of Author, the commercial rights in and to Author's name and the work. "Commercial rights" shall be understood to mean the exploitation of Author's name in connection with the work and of the work itself and all material including the characters contained therein through their use, simulation, or graphic exploitation on or in connection with merchandise. Publisher shall pay to Author fifty per cent (50%) of the net proceeds of such sales.

SOUND RECORDING FILMSTRIPS TEACHING MACHINES MICROFILM

16. Author grants to Publisher the sole and exclusive right to sell the work or parts of it for mechanical reproduction and transmission, including, but not by way of limitation (a) sound and picture recording, including phonographic, wire, and tape recording or any other method hereafter known or devised; (b) filmstrips; (c) programs for machine teaching; (d) microfilm and photocopying (except motion picture), or any other method now or hereafter known or devised for information storage, reproduction, and retrieval. Publisher shall pay to Author fifty per cent ~~(50%) of the proceeds of such sales.~~

USE BY NON-PROFIT ORGANIZATIONS

17. Publisher is authorized to grant permission, at no charge and without paying royalty to Author, for use of the work by recognized non-profit organizations for the physically disabled, such as, but not limited to, the right to put the work into Braille or talking books.

RIGHTS NOT SPECIFIED

* 18. All rights not herein specifically granted to Publisher are reserved by Author.

SEMI-ANNUAL ACCOUNTING

See Rider Attached

19. ~~(a) Publisher shall render statements of sales semi-annually as of April thirtieth and October thirty-first~~ and make payment of monies due within four months thereafter. If the work has not earned the amount of royalties advanced or Author has received an overpayment of royalties or is otherwise indebted to Publisher, Publisher may deduct the same from any sum due or to become due Author under this Agreement.

(b) Publisher ~~may, for the first three periods following~~ publication, set up a reserve of fifteen per cent ~~(15%) of the earnings due Author, to provide for returns.~~ See Rider Attached.

(c) Publisher shall, on the written request of Author, cause the public accountants regularly employed by Publisher to furnish to Author a certified copy of his latest semi-annual royalty statement.

AUTHOR'S COPIES

20. Publisher shall furnish to Author, free of charge, ten copies of the regular trade edition of the work as published; and should Author desire any more copies for personal use, they shall be supplied at one-half the retail price. Copies thus purchased shall not be resold. Author will be billed for these copies and payment shall be made within thirty (30) days of receipt of bill unless Publisher wishes to charge this amount to Author's royalty account, provided said account has excess royalties accrued over and above the advance royalty paid to Author.

WARRANTY

21. Author represents and warrants to Publisher that:

(a) The work is original.

(b) He is the sole ~~author and~~ proprietor thereof, and has full power to enter into this Agreement.

* (c) The work is not in the public domain, has never before been published in whole or in part in any form and he has not entered into or become subject to any contract, agreement, or understanding with respect thereto other than this Agreement.

(d) If published, the work will not infringe upon any proprietary right at common law, or any statutory copyright, or any other right whatsoever.

(e) The work is innocent, and contains no matter whatsoever that is obscene, libelous, in violation of any right of privacy, or otherwise in contravention of law.

INDEMNITY

22. (a) Author shall indemnify and hold Publisher harmless from any claim, suit, or action, and any expense or damage in consequence thereof, asserted by reason of Publisher's exercise or enjoyment of any of its rights hereunder or by reason of any warranty or indemnity made by Publisher in connection with the exercise of any such rights, as provided in subparagraphs (b), (c), (d), and (e) hereof.

★ (b) Publisher shall have the right to defend such claim, suit, or action by counsel of its selection and with the consent of Author to settle the same on such terms as it deems advisable.

(c) In the event a final judgment is entered against Publisher, Author shall be liable for and shall pay to Publisher the amount of said judgment and shall reimburse Publisher for any and all expenses incurred in said action, including reasonable counsel fees.

(d) In the event of a settlement, Author shall be liable for and pay to Publisher (1) fifty per cent (50%) of the amounts paid by Publisher in settlement and (2) fifty per cent (50%) of the amounts paid by Publisher for reasonable counsel fees and other expenses.

(e) In the event such claim, suit, or action is discontinued or dismissed without liability to Publisher, Author shall be liable for and shall pay to Publisher fifty per cent (50%) of the amounts paid by Publisher for reasonable counsel fees and other expenses.

(f) Publisher shall have the further right to withhold and apply any royalties or other sums due Author under this or any other agreement as security for Author's obligation under this Paragraph 22.

(g) The warranties contained in Paragraph 21 and the indemnities contained in this Paragraph 22 shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

Publisher shall have the right in its discretion to extend the benefit of Author's aforesaid warranties and indemnities to any person, firm, or corporation at any time and Author shall be liable thereon as if originally made to such person, firm, or corporation.

BREACH OF WARRANTY

★ 23. In the event of a material breach of any of Author's warranties or any material default by Author in the performance of his indemnities, Publisher may at its election and without prejudice to any other right or remedy against Author terminate this Agreement and in such event Author shall repay on demand to Publisher any advance against earnings or other sums paid to Author by Publisher.

//unless cured within thirty (30) days of notice of such breach or default by Publisher.

COPYRIGHT

See Rider Attached

24. ~~(a) Publisher shall take out copyright in name of~~ and take all steps required to secure said copyright in the United States, and is authorized in its discretion to take out copyright in such other countries as may be covered by this Agreement. Author agrees to apply for the renewal of said copyrights on the expiration of the first term thereof, and authorizes Publisher to make such application in his name. Author further agrees to assign to Publisher, if this agreement has not terminated previously, the sole and exclusive right to print, publish, copy, and vend the work, and the other rights referred to herein, during the full term of said renewal and extensions thereof, on the same terms and conditions as for the original copyright term.

(b) Author hereby authorizes Publisher to make Author a co-plaintiff with Publisher in any litigation against a third party for infringement of the copyright on the work, but without cost to Author. Any recovery from such litigation shall be applied first to reimburse Publisher for its expenses in connection therewith, and the balance shall be divided equally between Author and Publisher.

(c) Author agrees that in the event the present copyright law of the United States of America or of any other country where the work is protected by copyright shall be amended or changed or a new copyright law is enacted so that the term of copyright is extended or the benefits thereunder enlarged, Publisher shall forthwith automatically become entitled to all of such enlarged benefits thereby conveyed for such extended term.

MANUSCRIPT: CHARACTER DUE DATE AUTHOR'S ALTERATIONS

25. ~~(a) Author shall deliver to Publisher two (2) finally revised copies of the work, satisfactory to Publisher,~~ in content and form, including all illustrations and other graphic material essential to the work, in a form ready for reproduction, not later than

If Author delivers only one (1) finally revised copy of the work or if the second copy is not clean or legible, Publisher may have the original manuscript duplicated and the expense charged to Author's royalty account.

(b) Author shall also deliver to Publisher an index, if required by Publisher, promptly after proof is available for making the index. If Author fails to supply all such index, illustrations, and other graphic material in a form ready for reproduction, Publisher may obtain it and charge the expense thereof against Author's earnings hereunder. It is understood that such material is considered a part of the work and that all rights granted and warranties and indemnities made to Publisher hereunder apply also to use of such material.

(c) If Author incorporates into the work any material previously published and not in the public domain, he shall procure at his expense written authorization satisfactory to Publisher to publish it in the work and shall deliver copies of such authorization to Publisher with the manuscript.

~~(d) The provisions of subparagraphs (a) and (b) hereof as to the character, condition, and time of receipt~~ of the copies of the work are of the essence of the Agreement, and in the event of Author's default hereunder Publisher may, at its option, any time prior to actual publication of the work, terminate this Agreement without prejudice to any other remedy.

(e) Expense of Author's proof corrections exceeding ten per cent (10%) of cost of composition shall be charged against Author's earnings hereunder.

(f) Any sums paid to Author as advance royalties or otherwise shall be returned to Publisher on demand if said copies are not delivered as provided in subparagraph (a) hereof.

(g) Author represents that he has retained a copy of the manuscript and the Publisher shall not be liable for any loss resulting to Author from a destruction or other loss of the copies delivered to Publisher unless Publisher shall have failed to carry appropriate insurance therefore, if the same is available and has been requested in writing by Author and at Author's expense.

REMAINDERS

★ 26. If Publisher has a stock on hand which, in its judgment, could not be sold on usual terms in a reasonable time, it may sell such copies to any purchaser or purchasers, including Publisher's subsidiaries, at the best price it can secure. If such stock is sold at or below Publisher's cost, no royalty shall be paid to Author on such sales. If such copies are sold above Publisher's cost, the royalty paid to Author (in lieu of the royalty set forth in Paragraph ~~3~~ 5 hereof) shall be ten per cent (10%) of the revenue obtained from such sales.

No royalty shall be paid on copies destroyed or on copies given away to promote the sales of the work, whether to regular promotional channels or to book sellers.

DISCONTINUANCE OF PUBLICATION

★ ~~27. Publisher in its discretion may at any time determine to discontinue the publication of the work without~~ prejudice to its rights hereunder. In that event, it shall give notice of such determination to Author by registered mail at the address last given by him. Within thirty days after the mailing of such notice Author shall have the right to purchase from Publisher at cost any existing sheet and bound stock which is the unrestricted property of Publisher. Upon making such purchase the disposition of the other rights hereunder shall be by mutual agreement.

COPIES OF SUB-AGREEMENTS

28. Publisher undertakes, upon request, to furnish to Author verified copies of any agreements which Publisher may make with any third party for the disposition of any rights in the work.

GOVERNMENTAL RESTRICTION

29. The performance of Publisher or of Author pursuant to this Agreement is subject to governmental restrictions on essential materials and supplies, acts of war, strikes, or other conditions beyond their control.

sums paid to Author by Publisher.
